

Teach music with Confidence

Practical Strategies for Secondary Non-specialists and ECTs

Wednesday 14th October 9-3
Berkshire Music Trust, Reading, RG30 4EX

Session 1: Principles of Effective Music Teaching

Session 2: Assessing Music Musically

Lunch Provided by Berkshire Music Trust

Session 3: Teaching strategies for managing practical music lessons

Please use this link to sign up

*Please note - non-attendance after sign up will incur a £150 charge per delegate to cover costs

free for Berkshire State School Teachers***

- Fun musical activities to bring your lessons to life and to assess music musically
- Simple, effective strategies to get your students playing and exploring music confidently and productively
- Support to build your confidence in the classroom as a musician
- Live demonstration of practical ideas
- Ready to use resources you can take with you

Laura Bridger

Schools Development Manager and BYWO Assistant Conductor at Berkshire Music Trust
Drawing on nine years of experience as a classroom music teacher and standards leader, she now focuses on helping local schools develop practical, adaptive, and high-quality curricular music provision. She holds a secondary music PGCE from the University of Reading, an MMus from King's College London, and runs CPD to Primary and Secondary schools in Berkshire.

Seann Wilkinson

Director of Music at Langley Grammar School
Seann is an experienced music educator, coach and mentor specialising in pedagogy, Kodály, musicianship and technology-enhanced teaching. He supports teachers at all career stages to build confident practice, strengthen classroom and ensemble teaching, and develop thriving, inclusive music departments through expert coaching, mentoring and practical curriculum support.

Questions?

If you have any questions or experience any difficulty registering, please contact us at:

laurabridger@berksmusictrust.org.uk