

The University of Reading's, Institute of Education (IoE), will be running in-person and online events throughout the year for anyone interested in finding out more about the different routes into teaching. Those interested can opt to attend an in-person event or webinar to find out more about any of the Postgraduate Initial Teacher Education routes to Primary, Secondary or Early Years teaching.

Upcoming events include:

7th November – Primary Presentation (online)

14th November – Secondary Presentation (online)

30th November – Early Years Presentation (online)

5th December – Primary – Q&A (online)

12th December – Secondary – Q&A (online)

16th January – Fees and Funding (online)

7th February – Get into Teaching – in person event.

To register attendance for our events and to find out more, please visit IoE news and events.

For the academic year 2024/25, students recruited directly by the university or by our Lead Partners will be able to opt for the Primary Professional Graduate Certificate in Education. This gives students the opportunity to gain their qualified teacher status without completing the master's level assignments associated with the PGCE (Postgraduate Certificate in Education)."
