

Do you have an ECT or Non-Specialist who will be teaching music in September?

Please see attached a CPD aimed at Secondary Teachers who are teaching music either as an ECT or as a non-specialist in your school.

This is a full day CPD hosted by Berkshire Music Trust, FREE to state schools in Berkshire - sign up by 1st October to secure your spot! Please note - non-attendance after sign up will incur a £150 charge per delegate to cover costs.

Wednesday 14th October 9am – 3pm

Berkshire Music Trust, 100 Cockney Hill, Reading, RG30 4EX

Session 1: Principles of Effective Music Teaching

Session 2: Assessing Music Musically

Lunch Provided by Berkshire Music Trust

Session 3: Teaching strategies for managing practical music lessons

What's Included?

- Fun musical activities to bring your lessons to life and to assess music musically
- Simple, effective strategies to get your students playing and exploring music confidently and productively
- Support to build your confidence in the classroom as a musician
- Live demonstration of practical ideas
- Ready to use resources you can take with you

Please contact laurabridger@berksmusictrust.org.uk if you have any questions about the event.